Mission Statement

Our mission is to connect student athletes, brands and universities on one platform. We facilitate the recruitment process for athletes by connecting them to a network of universities and brands with the goal of encouraging well informed, mutually beneficial partnerships. We are here to guide you through the athletic experience under one social network.

TeamUp

Connect

athletes to institutions and brands that are mutually beneficial.

Commit

to universities that allow you to reach your highest athletic potential.

Collaborate

with local businesses and big brands to promote name, image and likeness (NIL).
